CAMPUS EVENTS

Campus Events is a weekly bulletin for all Summer Students published by the Division of University Extension.

August 4, 1969.

"It is also their (the Persians) general habit to deliberate upon affairs of weight when they are drunk; and then on the morrow, when they are sober, the decisions to which they came on the night before are put before them by the master of the house in which they were made; and if it is then approved of, they act on it, if not, they set it aside. Sometimes, however, they are sober at their first deliberation, but in this case they always reconsider the matter under the influence of wine."

"Be always drunken. Nothing else matters: that is the only question. If you would not feel the horrible burden of time weighing on your shoulders and crushing you to the earth, be drunken continually. Drunken with what? With wine, or with poetry, or with virtue as you will, but be drunken. And if sometimes on the stairs of a Palace or on the green side of a ditch, or in the dreary solitude of your own room you should awaken and the drunkenness be half or wholly slipped away from you, ask of the wind or of the wave or of the stars or of the bird or of the clock - of whatever flies or sighs or rocks or sings or speaks, ask what hour it is; and the wind, wave, star bird, clock will answer you: "It is the hour to be drunken! Be drunken if you wouldn't be martyred slaves of Time, be drunken continually! With wine, with poetry or with virtue as you will."

Editors Weekend

This weekend you may want to spend most of your time studying so the Editor suggests several things to do that may provide quick relief in a short space of time. If you are up to an 8:30 A.M. suggestion, you might take the subway to Front Street and walk East to number 92 where a Farmers Market is held every Saturday morning. The flower stalls are colourful and make good subjects for photography. Its free.

If nothing seems very funny to you by Saturday evening, make your way to The Terrace an open air cafe at the corner of Yorkville and Avenue Road (second floor) where they show comic movies (Charlie Chaplin, Marx Bros., etc.) Friday and Saturday evenings, after dark. There is no admission, but you must buy a minimum of $1.00 of food which is the average cost of one of their salad plates.

On Saturday and Sunday the "Caribana 69" West Indian Festival is going on on Olympic Island in the harbour. You reach the island by ferry, which leaves from the foot of Bay Street. You could combine this trip with a picnic. The Festival features steel bands, a straw market, displays of fruits and flowers and fashion shows. After 3:00 p.m. admission is $1.00 for adults and 25¢ for children.
